

MAJOR LEAGUES SIGN NEW AGREEMENTS

Chicago, Jan. 12.—(Special.) Baseball today swept the last vestige of disagreement from the ranks in a series of conferences which brought signed peace agreements not only between the major and minor leagues but between individual club owners who have vigorously opposed each other in affairs of administration and policy.

The two major leagues signed the new national agreement making Judge Kenesaw E. Landis baseball commissioner with supreme powers and the minor leagues also signed an agreement with Judge Landis as their ruler, but it differed in one important particular from that signed by the majors. This difference, it developed, was due to a misunderstanding in the joint meeting of the two leagues yesterday when the agreement was drawn up, and it was announced that the minor league would sign an agreement identical with the one approved by the major organizations.

Representatives of the national agreement, the individual major league club owners signed their signatures to a public criticism of each other or talk about peace agreements not only between the major and minor leagues but between individual club owners who have vigorously opposed each other in affairs of administration and policy.

The two major leagues signed the new national agreement making Judge Kenesaw E. Landis baseball commissioner with supreme powers and the minor leagues also signed an agreement with Judge Landis as their ruler, but it differed in one important particular from that signed by the majors. This difference, it developed, was due to a misunderstanding in the joint meeting of the two leagues yesterday when the agreement was drawn up, and it was announced that the minor league would sign an agreement identical with the one approved by the major organizations.

On motion of President Johnson, the major leagues voted to substitute the word "take" for "recommend" but it was found that the minors were not in official session and the matter would have to go through their drafting committee again.

Representatives of minor leagues in a standing vote assured the judge that they had considered "recommend" the same as "take" in that they were bound to abide by his decisions but that as soon as the agreement could be formally taken up again the word would be changed and they would sign.

Tonight the major leagues signed the contract with Judge Landis making him commissioner for seven years at $50,000 a year. The national agreement will remain in effect so long as Judge Landis is commissioner.

Judge Landis, however, has stipulated that his salary of $75,000 a year as judge should be deducted from his baseball salary, so he actually will get only $25,000 a year from baseball.

The new agreement also provides for restoration of the draft with the prices set down for $5,000 for class A, $10,000 for class B, $15,000 for class C, $20,000 for class D, $25,000 for class E,
